1 Call Meeting to Order

-) Present: Leon, Dennis, Tony, Carolyn, Jan
Absent: Mike, Marjorie
Staff Present: Lorrie Bauer, Administrative Assistant; Shayne Nope, City Attorney

Leon called the meeting to order at 1:31 PM. A quorum was present.

2) Items of Consideration

- a) Request to approve the June 22, 2021 minutes.
MOTION: Dennis moved to approve the June 22, 2021 minutes. Carolyn seconded the motion. Unanimously approved.
- b) Potential Projects
Wall Mural Project: City Attorney, Shayne Nope, shared communications he had with city officials and Meghan Conrad, URA Attorney, regarding potential information for the Call to Artists and Artist Agreement. Discussion ensued. Shayne will share feedback with Meghan and final text will be given to Lorrie and Carolyn to finalize the documents and issue the Call.

Art Recognition Board: Following discussion with City officials, the south wall of the Downtown Commons restroom building (Hansen St. side) will be recommended for the location of the board. Proposal from Lytle Signs will be presented at the next meeting. Carolyn shared the library wants to collaborate with others and house an art website which could include the art recognition board information.

Dennis shared the City's Public Art Commission has sent out their public outreach survey.

Lorrie shared one of the murals in the Downtown Commons was vandalized and Lytle Signs is working on a patch estimate as well as a possible replacement cost.

Next meeting will be scheduled after the close of the call-to-artists in September.

3) Adjournment

The meeting adjourned at 2:25 PM.

Lorrie Bauer, Administrative Assistant
