3) ITEMS OF CONSIDERATION

a) Policy Development: Resolution 2022 (drafts will be presented at the meeting)

The definition of public art to include performance and visual art was discussed. Temporary public art was discussed as a term to define performance and visual art.

Commissioners discussed and addressed the comments in the document. Edits were made.

The need to generalize the policy document to allow for flexibility while considering public art projects was emphasized.

Discussion ensued regarding the next step for the commission for this document. Wendy Davis stated that the legal department will look over the Policy document when the commissioners are comfortable that the document is ready for review before taking it to the City Council for final approval.

MOTION: Melissa Crane moved to direct staff to present the Policy document to the city attorney for review, Janeale Dean seconded the motion. Roll call vote determined all present voted in favor of the motion. Approved 5 to 0.

4) GENERAL PUBLIC INPUT

Wendy Davis discussed the “Free Wall” project conducted by high school students including the following:

- The wall that the students are interested is the wall on the side of the building across the street from the Parks and Recreation office.
- A policy is currently being worked on so that the students can implement the project.
