A City Arborist has visited the site; review comments below:

Applicant wishes to save the other trees on site and would like to protect them through bigger planter size with a new sidewalk across the face of the building. The tree closest to Bill's Automotive is close to the property line with a sidewalk that dead-ends into the tree. Removal of this Locust would allow applicant to redirect sidewalk away from other trees along curb. Honey Locust in question is in reasonable health with some broken limbs from wind. The current planter size is too small for the species which has resulted in uplift of sidewalk. Tree appears to be putting on new growth even without a system to water it. Current location would not be good to replace tree.
