MOTION: Camille Barigar moved to approve the consent calendar as presented. Janeale Dean seconded the motion. A voice vote determined all present voted in favor of the motion. None opposed. Approved 6 to 0.

3) ITEMS OF CONSIDERATION

- a) Review and finalize the Public Art Commission Resolution 2022

Wendy Davis explained the request and stated that the document was presented to the City Attorney's office for review. Minor changes were made to the document by the City Attorney.

Commissioners showed interest in attending the City Council meeting where the Resolution would be brought for approval.

Commissioners went through the document in detail to finalize the document and discussion ensued regarding the allocation of the funding for the Public Art Commission.

No motion was taken on this item.

- b) Consider a request to make a recommendation to City Council to adopt the Public Art Commission Resolution 2022.

MOTION: Camile Barigar moved to make a recommendation to City Council to adopt the Public Art Commission Resolution 2022. Amy Westover seconded the motion. A voice vote determined all present voted in favor of the motion. None opposed. Approved 6 to 0.

Discussion ensued regarding increasing the funding for this Commission.

- c) Update on Urban Renewal Agency Public Art Sub Committee actions

Wendy Davis introduced Planning and Zoning Director Jonathan Spendlove to the Commission.

Wendy Davis clarified that the correct name of the sub-committee is "The Urban Renewal Agency Downtown Arts Sub-Committee," and gave an update on this item, including the following:

- The URA's inventory/directory that identifies Public Art in the City of Twin Falls which will be handed over to the Public Art Commission for use.
- Website (maintained by the library) with a QR code, and brochure.
- Public signage at the Downtown Commons that will outline Public Art.
- The second part of the mural that will be completed on the back of the City Information building

Jonathan Spendlove briefly described his role with the Public Art process.

Discussion ensued regarding the Urban Renewal agency, including whether they will continue to collect funds for Public Art in their new district, as well as whether they would intend to create another Art related sub-committee.

Discussion ensued regarding the next step, creating policy for the processes.

The Commission discussed the sub-committee meeting again to discuss the policy creation before the May Public Art Commission meeting.

4) GENERAL PUBLIC INPUT

Commissioners discussed the following:

- K-12 Grant available
- Art and Soul registration

Discussion ensued regarding linking survey results to the Public Art Commission meeting site.

Wendy Davis gave an update on the Graffiti Free Wall in collaboration with the Canyon Ridge High School. Graffiti wall is currently “open” to public for use.
