2) CONSENT CALENDAR

3) ITEMS OF CONSIDERATION

a) Work Session for Public Art Policy.

Wendy Davis presented the document created by City Staff for the Public Art Application. Edits were made to the document.

Session participants were asked to consider potential applications to help build the document.

Discussion ensued regarding insurance and the Special Event process. Considering the current process for public events in City Facilities was discussed.

Discussion ensued regarding performing art projects such as Art-walks, storytelling, performance type shows, etc. and how they would be considered through the application process.

The determining factor for the Commission's jurisdiction was discussed. It was determined that if applicants request funding through the Public Art Commission, they would qualify as a project or event that would be under the purview of the Public Art Commission and the application process.

Placing the initial qualifying question for projects identifying if they are a donation, proposed City project, or community partnership to evaluate the type of request was discussed.

Drew Nash left the session at 1:00 p.m.

The permitting process for current Parks events was discussed.

Amy Westover left the session at 1:05 p.m.
