- b) Continue feasibility study discussion

Wendy Davis gave a brief overview of the item. Council member Cherie Vollmer invited Travis Rothweiler and Council member Spencer Cutler to provide some feedback as they have experience in parent participation in youth sports and event planning at CSI, respectively.

Travis Rothweiler discussed the following:

- Magic Valley Madness and the scope of their services
- Club basketball – DNA basketball, Magic Valley basketball Club were discussed.
- Entry fees, registration fees, and Club fees were discussed
- Shoe-league: leagues sponsored by shoe companies.
- Volleyball leagues were briefly discussed.

Discussion ensued regarding the use and number of courts. Current facilities that have 4 courts, seem to satisfy the needs of most user groups. Sizes of courts were discussed.

Seating options at various facilities where tournaments were held were discussed.

Inclusivity and concerns regarding low-income youth participation was mentioned.

A timeline was discussed. Progress is being made on a location for this project. Making a final feasibility report to City Council in the Fall, around November was discussed.

4) Upcoming Meetings

5) Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at approximately 12:55 p.m.
