Discussion

Request:

Work on a Mission Statement and funding philosophy for a potential community center

Time Estimate:

Discussion is expected to take the full 90 minutes.

Background:

As part of the feasibility study, the Committee was tasked with coming up with a Mission Statement to reflect the expectations and dreams of the community for a recreation center. This exercise will begin the process of developing a Mission Statement to capture the community center.

Approval Process:

Once a statement is drafted, the committee will take the recommendation to council.
