3) ITEMS OF CONSIDERATION

a) INFORMATIONAL: Timeline of appointment of new members.

By: Mandi Thompson, Assistant to the City Manager

Mandi Thompson explained Sergio Larios and Liyah Babayan's membership term will be extended to September. The City of Twin Falls will be seeking individuals to serve a three-year term, with the term starting September 2020. Currently, seven of the nine committee seats are filled. Joshua Palmer will place the application on the City's website.

Travis Rothweiler requested committee members contact Mandi if interested in being involved in the selection process.

b) INFORMATIONAL: City of Twin Falls response to COVID-19.

By: Mandi Thompson, Assistant to the City Manager

Travis Rothweiler explained the City of Twin Falls response to COVID-19.

Advisory Commissions: Meetings will continue to operate in a virtual setting and will resume normal operations in July 2020.

City Hall: Building is now open to the public. Customers are requested to use a mask.

Recreation Programs will comply with the Governor's order.

Utility Services: Customers with delinquent accounts are being asked to enter into a payment arrangement agreement. By completing an agreement, those with delinquent accounts will be required to have their bills brought current by July 15th. Will turn water off on all delinquent account holders who have arranged but failed to bring their bill current on July 15, 2020. A resource list will be provided to delinquent customers.

Liyah Babayan reported monies (contributed by a private donor) are available to help with utilities, food, and emergency cash. Monies are designated for marginalized and undocumented citizens and required to relate to COVID-19. In addition, the Idaho Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, CSI Refugee Center and Unity Alliance can provide information.

Travis explained information will be placed on the City's resource list and the City's website.

c) DISCUSSION: Roundtable on community resources for COVID-19 response.

By: Mandi Thompson, Assistant to the City Manager

Mandi Thompson gave an update on the HUD Consolidated Plan in which Mosaic Community Planning is currently creating for the City of Twin Falls.

Mandi also gave an update on the CARES Act. The City of Twin Falls received $200,000. Funds can be used for rental and utility assistance.

Discussion followed.

-Mandi will check if CDBG Grant will match money for other grants.

-Mandi clarified that after public participation and community input, the HUD Consolidated draft plan will be presented to the City Council for review.

Em English reported the College of Southern Idaho received funding from a small source for a bit over a million dollars. Point of contact: CSI Student Services and CSI Counseling Center.

Alejandra Hernandez reported two new grants were received to help small business.

Discussion followed on translating information in different languages and placing on the Diversity & Inclusion Committee City website. The Refugee Center, St. Luke's and County of Twin Falls have translators available. The City of Twin Falls will find resources to compensate for time. Liyah also stated that donor money may be available to cover costs of translation of material.

Mandi asked the committee to assist her relating to translation of languages.

- d) DISCUSSION: Listening sessions and community feedback.

By: Travis Rothweiler

- e) DISCUSSION: Upcoming Listening Sessions

By: Travis Rothweiler

Travis commended Winnie Mwende Christensen, Liyah Babayan, Stephanie Neverez and Sergio Larios for organizing a vigil for George Floyd in the Twin Falls City Park. In addition, Richard Aldama was in attendance.

Liyah Babayan and Sergio Larios gave an update on the event. Speaker included Sheree Haggan, a diversity specialist at Google.

Liyah, for the record, asked why Mayor Suzanne Hawkins did not attend the rally.

Travis explained Mayor Hawkins was unable to reschedule a previous commitment. In attendance included himself, Chief of Police Craig Kingsbury, Captain Anthony Barnhart, Vice Mayor Ruth Pierce, Councilperson Christopher Reid, and city staff. He asked Liyah to contact him so he can schedule a time for her to meet with Mayor Hawkins.

Police Chief Kingsbury spoke at the vigil and thanked everyone for their participation. He pledged to the people conversations will continue. He reported that on Wednesday, June 3, 2020, a group of young people protested in front of City Hall and the Police Department.

Em English gave an update on Pride Week activities and the 5th Annual MV Pride Festival 2020 Social Distance Celebration. In addition, she is working on project for the LGBTQ community collecting inspirational 30 second one a day posting.

Travis discussed shooting for a community event at the park. Discussion followed on scheduling a special meeting and asking facilitator Shannon McGuire to attend. Proposed dates July 7, 8, and 9th.

Discussion followed on the upcoming July 4, 2020, event at the College of Southern Idaho.

Liyah stated the refugee community gather for the festivities at the CSI and this would be a great opportunity to distribute the Diversity & Inclusion pamphlet.

Travis will be meeting with CSI President Fisher next week, and at that time, will discuss the fireworks event and the possibility of handing out pamphlets.

4) ADJOURNMENT

The meeting adjourned at 5:45 p.m.
