b) DISCUSSION: Planning and methods of public engagement.

By: Janeale Dean, Board Member, Mandi Thompson, Assistant to the City Manager

Janeale Dean led the discussion. Discussion followed on channels the survey could be sent out to stakeholders (businesses and organizations) and the general public.

Discussion followed.

- Digital survey method to begin with an introductory letter and survey.
- Submit questions to various stakeholders generated by the committee and review results.
- Survey for both stakeholders and general public to be consistent.
- Commission to create a list of stakeholders, receive input and review within the following two months.
- Commission to take survey.

Commission homework:

Prior to February's monthly meeting, Janeale Dean and Amy Westover to work with Mandi Thompson to take what has been submitted in Teams Public Engagement document survey questions and refine it down to a manageable sized survey.

At February's meeting Commission members will take the questionnaire and will collectively refine survey questions. Questionnaire to be sent to stakeholders in March.

All members to work in refining bullet points in Teams Working Documents:
